Dalmore - Highland Single Malt Whisky 12y Old - 40% | WHISKY —

Domain

Dalmore

The gift of a King, the 12-point Royal Stag proudly adorns each bottle of The Dalmore. It encapsulates the distillery's regal legacy, dating back to 1263. The emblem was bestowed upon Colin of Kintail, the first chieftain of Clan Mackenzie, after he saved the life of King Alexander III of Scotland from the fury of a charging stag. In 1839, the Dalmore distillery was founded by Alexander Matheson, a merchant adventurer determined to create an exceptional single malt whisky. In 1867, descendants of Clan Mackenzie took control of the distillery. One of their first changes was to adorn every bottle of The Dalmore with the stag – a guarantee of peerless quality.

Vinification

An outstanding single malt matured for 12 years in American white oak ex-bourbon casks and finessed in rare and aged oloroso sherry casks.

Taste

Aromas of citrus fruits, chocolate and aromatic spices. On the palate, seville oranges, dried fruits and hints of vanilla pod. Delicious finish with roasted coffee and dark chocolate.
