

Az. Provveditore – Primo Riserva | Morellino di Scansano DOCG Italy (TUSCANY) – 2016

Domain

Az. Provveditore

Provveditore is a wine estate with 30 ha of vines and more than 3000 olive trees in the province of Grosseto. It is a family business that has been combining tradition with innovation since the last 3 generations and creating its own products with great passion and high quality.

Vinification

The harvest is done manually. The wine is aged for 18 months in French oak barrels, both large and small barrels are used. Then, the wine will age, after bottling, in the bottle for at least 6 months before being marketed.

Taste

The wine has a ruby red color with some garnet hues. In the nose it is a fruity, pure and intense wine with some light spiciness. The palate shows a silky texture and is full-bodied with elegant tannins and good length.
