

Ciabot Berton – 1961 | Barolo DOCG
Italy (PIEMONTE) – 2018*Domain*Ciabot Berton

The winery now in use was built in the 1980s on the site which has always been known as Ciabot Berton. The small building (ciabot, in Piedmont dialect) which stands here once belonged to a certain Berton, who had attempted to set up manufacturing fireworks here, and had burnt out the building and destroyed its roof. This old ruin, which gave its name to the business, can still be seen from the winery, and is surrounded by the Nebbiolo vineyard. The new winery is therefore sited in a dominant position, where it enjoys views of the wonderful landscape which opens out over the hills of Barolo. On clear days, gazing towards the north, the peaks of Cervino and the mass of Monte Rosa stand out, while in the opposite direction the villages of the Alta Langa form a hinge between Piedmont and Liguria.

Vinification

The grapes are harvested from 3 different vineyards in the historic La Morra. The vineyard itself is located at an altitude of 250-300 meters above sea level with a southern orientation. Traditional vinification in temperature-controlled cement tanks. Finally, additional aging in Slavonian barrels.

Taste

Garnet red with ruby highlights. The nose is ethereal and expansive with hints of minerals and balsamic notes accompanied by scents of rose, spices, red fruits and wax. The palate is tangy and pleasant, rich, very persistent and well supported by tannins.
