Julius Klein

The Klein family has been making wine since 1788. About 50 kilometers north of the Danube and Vienna lies the wine-growing region Weinviertel in the province of Nieder-Österreich. With 18,000 hectares of vineyards, this is also the largest wine-growing region in Austria.

Vinification

Zweigelt is a cross between the St. Laurent and Blaufränkisch grapes. Manual harvest in October, the stems of the grapes are removed, the fermentation takes place at a temperature of 29 °C, followed by an additional maceration of 5 days.

Taste

In the nose the typical aroma of cherries, strawberries and fresh green herbs. In the mouth ripe fruit (plums and cherries), pleasant acidity, little pepper, soft tannins.

Food pairing

Pork | Poultry - guineafowl | Tripe with red cabbage | Charcuterie
